District Attorney Riddie has submitted the ollowing opinion to the commissioners: "I am inclined to the idea of breveting two sevam included to the folian of brevening two severally grade teachers to eighth grade schools—that is, assign them to those at seventh grade pay—if that can be done without detriment to the lower grades. It seems to me that the promoted pupils should be actually advanced; that it would be a real disaster to the schools, a section of the product of the that it would be a real disaster to the schools, as well as an injustice to the individual pupils, to keep them herded back in the grade they are entitled to leave. I think the words, no increase in selaries and no increase in the number of teachers, may, in view of this compelling necessity, be satisfied. I should, I think, try it, making a frank avowal of it in the earliest reports, and ask for relief from Congress."

Rally, Rally, Boys, Rally!

How the boys are marching, Seventh street full of them. Young America aroused! The National Drill has stirred up Young America, and on nearly every street you see a young squad of youthful soldiers every day. My little fellow said "Pap, give me money to get a gun; I belong to a soldier company." Let the little fellows enjoy themselves, they are happy. So am I, seeing them. I was a boy once myself. Sorry I can't be again, but we want to call your attention to clothing. We have too large a stock; we want to reduce our stock of Men's, Boys', and Children's Clothing, and we want all these boys in rank and file to make a raid on us for their suits. We have them for you at reduced prices. We want to cloth all of you, off of Boys on to Men, Clerks, Knights of Honor, all Mechanics, Merchants, or Workingmen. You can save $1 to $5 on a suit of clothing at our house. We must sell our goods, and you can't afford to do without them. The prices are way down for the quality of the goods. Make, cut, and finish equal to the finest custom work, and at half the price. Best Baltimore and New York made goods at real bargains. You are wanted at our store. We have a thousand Men's.
